40. In describing the offence respecting the sale or keeping for sale or other disposal of liquor, or the having, keeping, giving, purchasing, or the consumption of liquor, in any information, summons, conviction, warrant, or proceeding under this Ordinance it shall be sufficient to state the sale or keeping for sale or disposal, having, keeping, giving, purchasing, or consumption of liquor, simply without stating the name or kind of such liquor or the price thereof, or any person to whom it was sold or disposed of, or by whom it was taken or consumed, or from whom it was purchased, or received, and it shall not be necessary to state the quantity of liquor so sold, kept for sale, disposed of, had, kept, given, purchased, or consumed, except in the case of offences where the quantity is essential, and then it shall be sufficient to allege the sale or disposal of more or less than such quantity.

41. The description of any offence under this Ordinance in the words of this Ordinance or in any words of like effect, shall be sufficient in law; and any exception, exemption, provision, excuse, or qualification, whether it occurs by way of proviso or in the description of the offence in this Ordinance, may be proved by the defendant, but need not be specified or negatived in the information; but if it is so specified or negatived, no proof in relation to the matter so specified or negatived shall be required on the part of the informant or complainant.

Proof of exceptions.

42. In any prosecution under this Ordinance for the sale or keeping for sale or other disposal of liquor, or the having, keeping, giving, purchasing, or consuming of liquor, it shall not be necessary that any witness should depose to the precise description or quantity of the liquor sold, disposed of, kept, had, given, purchased, or consumed, or the precise consideration (if any) received therefor, or to the fact of the sale or other disposal having taken place with his participation or to his own personal or certain knowledge; but the Justice trying the case, so soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and, in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the Justice, convict him accordingly.

Evidence on prosecution for unlawful sale, etc.

43. In proving the sale, disposal, unlawful giving, or purchase, or consumption of liquor, it shall not be necessary in any prosecution to show that any money actually passed or any liquor was actually consumed, if the Justice of analyst.

44. A certificate purporting to be signed by any person appointed or designated by the Commissioner in writing as an analyst for the purposes of this Ordinance, as to the percentage of alcohol contained in any liquid, drink, liquor, or combination of liquors, when produced in any Court or before any Justice, shall be prima facie evidence of the percentage of alcohol contained therein, without proof of the signature or official position of the analyst by whom the certificate is made.

Proof that liquor intoxicating.

45. The Justice trying a case shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be at liberty to infer that the liquor in question is intoxicating from the fact that a witness described it as intoxicating liquor.

Justice may draw inferences.

46. Upon the hearing of any charge of selling or purchasing liquor, or of unlawfully having, giving or keeping liquor, contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, the Justice trying the case shall have the right to draw inferences of fact from the kind and quantity of liquor found in the possession of the person accused or in any building, premises, vehicle, motor-car, automobile, vessel, boat, canoe, conveyance, or place occupied or controlled by him, and from the frequency with which liquor is received thereat or therein or is removed therefrom, and from the circumstances attending the alleged unlawful giving or under which it is kept or dealt with.

Prima facie evidence of sale, etc.

47. If, on the prosecution of any person charged with committing an offence against this Ordinance in selling or keeping for sale or unlawfully giving or keeping or having or purchasing or receiving of liquor, prima facie proof is given that such person had in his possession or charge or control any liquor in respect of or concerning which he is being prosecuted, then, unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence.

48. (1) The burden of proving the right to have or keep or sell or give or purchase or consume liquor shall be on the person accused of improperly or unlawfully having or keeping or selling or giving or purchasing or consuming such liquor.

Burden of proof upon the person accused.

(2) The burden of proving that any prescription or administration of liquor is bona fide and for medical purposes only shall be upon the person who prescribed or administers such liquor, or causes such liquor to be administered, and the Justice trying a case shall have the right to draw inferences of fact from the frequency with which similar prescriptions are given and from the amount of liquor prescribed or administered, and from the circumstances under which it is prescribed or administered.

Proof of bona fides of prescription or administration of liquor.

49. The proceedings upon any information for an offence against any of the provisions of this Ordinance in a case where a previous conviction or convictions are charged, shall be as follows:

Proceedings where previous conviction charged.

(a) The Justice shall in the first instance inquire concerning such subsequent offence only, and if the accused is found guilty thereof he shall then, and not before, be asked whether he was so previously convicted as alleged in the information, and if he answers that he was so previously convicted he shall be sentenced accordingly, but if he denies that he was so previously convicted or does not answer such question, the Justice shall then inquire concerning such previous conviction or convictions.

(b) Such previous convictions may be proved prima facie by the production of a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the convicting Justice or the Clerk of the Court to whose office the conviction has been returned, without proof of signature or official character;

(c) In the event of any conviction for any second or subsequent offence becoming void or defective after the making thereof by reason of any previous conviction being set aside, quashed, or otherwise rendered void, the Justice by whom such second or subsequent conviction was made shall summon the person convicted to appear at a time and place to be named, and shall thereupon, upon proof of the due service of such summons, if such person fails to appear, or on his appearance, amend such second or subsequent conviction, and adjudge such penalty or punishment as might have been adjudged had such previous conviction never existed; and such amended conviction shall thereupon be held valid to all intents and purposes as if it had been made in the first instance;

(d) In case any person who has been convicted of a violation of any provision of this Ordinance is afterwards convicted of a violation of any other provision of this Ordinance, such a conviction shall be deemed a conviction for a second offence within the meaning of this Ordinance, and shall be dealt with and punished accordingly, although the two convictions may have been under different sections.

Information for several offences.

50. (1) Charges of several offences against this Ordinance committed by the same person may be included in one and the same information, if the information and the summons or warrant issued thereon contain specifically the time and place of each offence.

Conviction
offences.

(2) One conviction for several offences, and providing a separate penalty or punishment for each, may be made under this Ordinance although such offences may have been committed on the same day; but the increased penalty or punishment hereinbefore imposed shall only be incurred or awarded in the case of offences committed on different days and after information laid for a first offence.

51. (1) In all prosecutions, actions, or proceedings under the provisions of this Ordinance against a corporation, every summons, warrant, order, writ or other proceeding may, in addition to any other manner of service which may be provided or authorized by law, be served on the corporation by delivering the same to any officer, attorney, or agent of the corporation, or by leaving it at any place in the Territory where it carries on any business: Provided that service in any other way shall be deemed sufficient if the Court or Justice by or before whom such summons, warrant, order, writ, or other proceeding was issued or is returnable, or by or before whom any proceeding subsequent to such service is to be had or taken, is of the opinion that the service has been such as to bring the summons, warrant, order, writ, or other proceeding to the notice of the corporation.
- Service on corporations.
- (2) In any prosecution, action, or proceeding under this Ordinance in which it is alleged that a corporation is or has been guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, the fact of the incorporation of that corporation shall be presumed without it being proved by the prosecutor, unless satisfactory proof is produced to the contrary.
- Proof of incorporation.
52. (1) Whenever any corporation is convicted of any offence against or under this Ordinance, and the conviction adjudges a pecuniary penalty to be paid by the corporation, the Justice by his conviction, after adjudging payment of such penalty with costs, may order and adjudge that in default of payment of such penalty forthwith or within a limited time, such penalty shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the corporation.
- Recovery of penalty from corporation.
- (2) In any such case, and in addition to the other remedies provided hereby, a copy of the conviction or order certified to by any Justice, or by the officer in whose custody the same is by law required to be kept, may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Territorial Court, and the conviction or order shall

Liability of Officer of

53. Where an offence against this Ordinance is committed by a corporation, the officer or agent of the corporation in charge of the premises in which the offence is committed shall prima facie be deemed to be a party to the offence so committed, and shall be personally liable to the penalties prescribed for the offence as a principal offender; but nothing in this section shall relieve the corporation or the person who actually committed the offence from liability therefor.

Liability of occupant of premises.

54. Upon proof of the fact that an offence against this Ordinance has been committed by any person in the employ of the occupant of any house, shop, room, or other premises in which the offence is committed, or by any person who is suffered by the occupant to be or remain in or upon such house, shop, room, or premises, or to act in any way for the occupant, the occupant shall prima facie be deemed to be a party to the offence so committed, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for the offence as a principal offender, notwithstanding the fact that the offence was committed by a person who is not proved to have committed it under or by the direction of the occupant; but nothing in this section shall relieve the person actually committing the offence from liability therefor.

55. No appeal shall lie from a conviction for any violation or contravention of any of the provisions of this Ordinance unless the party appealing shall within the time limited for giving notice of such appeal make an affidavit before any Justice that he did not by himself or by his agent, servant, or employee, or any other person, with his knowledge or consent commit the offence charged in the information; and such affidavit shall negative the charge in the terms used in the conviction, and shall further negative the commission of the offence by the agent, servant, or employee of the accused, or any other person, with his knowledge or consent; which affidavit shall be transmitted with the conviction to the Court to which the appeal is given. Where the party appealing is a corporation, the affidavit may be made by any officer or director of the corporation having a personal knowledge of the facts.

56. No conviction or order made in any matter arising under this Ordinance, either originally or on appeal, shall be quashed for want of form; and no information, summons, conviction, order or other proceeding shall be held to be bad or quashed on account of its charging two or more offences, or charging an offence disjunctively, or in the alternative.
