

Return to Document

Figure 25: Matrix-supported conglomerate of the Brew Group, exposed in the core of the southwest-vergent antiformal syncline, south of Mount Brew. This unit overlies fossiliferous Early Cretaceous calcarenite of the upper Brew Group and contains pebbles, cobbles and boulders of granite, granodiorite and subordinate siltstone, black chert and minor quartzite. Granite boulders are being processed for U- Pb dating.