
Printed by the Cartographic Information and Distribution Centre Published 1988.

Canada

Figure 8. Pseudostratigraphy of volcanic belt in the Cameron River subarea. Vertical lines 1 to 11 in (a) show locations of columns in (b). Columns in (b) show detailed apparent stratigraphy across the volcanic belt. The apparent (because of structural uncertainties) thicknesses are widths perpendicular to strike of deformed units. Attitudes of faults cutting across the belt are diagrammatic because of exaggeration of scale perpendicular to the belt.

Figure 8
Bulletin 382

This document was produced by scanning the original publication.

Ce document est le produit d'une numérisation par balayage de la publication originale.