

Figure 34. Distribution of the Lower Mississippian and Upper Devonian(?) strata (Seagull and upper Harvey groups). Labeled faults may have controlled facies. The coincident distributions of Felsic Volcanics (below) and Cloutier formations (Fig. 15) imply a long-lived volcanic centre.

