

49-16A
 PITCHBLLENDE OCCURRENCES
 BETWEEN
BEAVERLODGE AND HOTTAH LAKES
 NORTHWEST TERRITORIES
 (NORTHEAST SHEET)

Scale: 1 inch to 500 feet
 500 0 500 1000 1500 2000 2500

LEGEND

	Diabase and gabbro		Fault
	Granite, granodiorite		Bedding (inclined, vertical, overturned)
	Gabbro		Bedding (direction of dip known, upper side of bed unknown)
	Cherty argillite, red to grey slate, some interbedded quartzite		Building
	Quartzite, some conglomerate and interbedded grey to red slates; in places cut by stockwork of vein quartz		Shaft
	Fine-grained green to blue-grey dacitic flows; tuffs and agglomerates		Pit or trench
	1a - Feldspar and feldspar-quartz porphyry 1b - Fragmental, agglomeratic, and tuffaceous phases of feldspar-quartz porphyry		Pitchblende occurrence
			Base line

PROTEROZOIC (LATE PRECAMBRIAN)

SNAKE GROUP

Geology by J. F. Henderson, 1945.

Compiled by the Topographical Survey, Issued 1949.